Thomas C. McCaskey

Two sons Abraham b. 1619 and Joseph b. 1621 were thought to have been left behind at the Corpus Christi School in London. Their first appearance in this country is 1637.

Thos. Jolin first settled at Sudbury Mass., and then lived at Hingham for a few years. He removed to Watertown where he lived until 1653. With Nathaniel, other members of his family and a few others he settled in the Valley of the "Neishaway", afterwards Lancaster, Mass.

Records show that Thomas & Nathaniel his son signed the first agreement or Covenant for a local government at Lancaster, September 12, 1654.

Thomas Jolin died at Lancaster 1660, leaving a will, recorded at Cambridge.

Thomas & his son sold land in Hingham Mass., 3-11-1652 to Geo. Land & Moses Collier.

Thomas & his son Nathaniel had land in Lancaster Mass., on the north side of what is now Main St.

Gen 8 -

Thomas Jaslin b. 1739 was about 50 yrs old when he came to N. J. so he must have landed there about 1709. The first record of him in N. J. is 1714, the inventory of the estate of John Brown late of Monmouth Co., N. J. shows that Thos. Jaslin was mort-gager of said estate. Thos died about 1722 and is buried in the old historic church yard at Fairfield N. J.

GODWIN FAMILY

COPIED FROM A NEWSPAPER CLIPPING FOUND IN THE BIBLE WHICH HAD BELONGED TO MRS. W.T. BUDD(MRS ROSALIE GODWIN BUDD)

DIED: Mrs. Elizabeth M. Godwin at the family residence 1522 2nd Ave., Terre Haute aged 66 years and 5 months of complication of diseases. The deceased was a resident of Clay County some 25 years ago living at Saline City where the family lived quite a number of years, and where she formed a wide circle of warm friends, and in her present home none knew her but to love and respect her.

As a Christian she lived and died. Her home was always open for the comfort of her neighbors and friends. She was a member of the M.E. Church since 1858 being highly respected in that congregation. She was a kind and devoted wife, a loving and affectionate mother. The deceased leaved a devoted husband and four children to mourn her demise, one son and three daughters, John Godwin, Mrs. Solomon P. Barnett, Mrs. Theodore Budd and Mrs. Warren Floyd.

BARNETT FAMILY

THE BODIES OF GRACE BARNETT AND MRS ELIZA BARNETT:

Last Wednesday Solomon Barnett father of Grace Barnett and R. M. Floyd of Terre Haute came to Cottage Hill cemetery and exhumed the body of Grace Barnett that was interred some two months and removed it to Terre Haute. Grace was doted on by her parents and they wanted her body where they could visit her last resting place and see that her tomb was not neglected.

Thursday morning Solomon Barnett and R.W. Floyd went to the old Barnett cemetery three miles southwest of Reelsville and exhumed the mother of Mr. Barnett and brought her remains to this city and replanted them in Cottage Hill cemetery. The deceased died July 14, 1868 at her home on the National road just this side of where the Vandalia switch crosses the National road.

Miss Anna Royse, Civic Leader, Dies Suddenly

Miss Anna Royse, long active in Terre Haute civic, social and religious work, died suddenly last night at her home at 431 South Fifth street.

She was found dead at 8:55 p. m. when her maid, Miss Hazel Thomas, returned home. Miss Royse lay at the foot of the stairs, and was believed to have been stricken an hour earlier.

She had seemed in good health when visited earlier in the day by her brother, William C. Royse, who teaches in Tower Hill, Ill., and her cousin, John T. Royse.

Miss Royse was a lifelong resident of Terre Haute. She was the daughter of Samuel and Harriet Durham Royse, and sister of Samuel Royse and Miss Martha Royse, all of whom preceded her in death.

She was a lifelong member of St. Stephen Episcopal Church and active in its societies. She was a member of the Union Hospital Board of Directors and was a member of the Country Club of Terre Haute. She had also been active in the work of the Terre Haute chapter of the American Red Cross.

She is survived by her brother; several cousins, John T. Royse and James S. Royse, of Terre Haute; Arthur Royse Kidder of Napersville, Ill.; John W. Cannon and Miss Myra Durham of Danville, Ill., and three cousins in Louisville, Ky.

The body was taken to P. J. Ryan & Sons Funeral Home.
